GOVERNMENT RECLAMATION AND SETTLEMENT

Modern machines and power have displaced millions, and threatened their bread. What remedy?

For one, the "Subsistence Settlement," putting the man, rightly equipped, upon the land, to raise his food.

"He must have money." Yes. Teach him to can, pickle, preserve and ship, and build small, wage-paying industries.

The government seeks sites. With its location, climate and fertility, the Everglades, reclaimed by the government, will defy comparison.

South Florida tells Washington: "In 1850 you gave this land to Florida to reclaim. Much she still holds, wild and idle. Resume that part, reclaim all, and fill it with prosperous, happy families."

The Coast, in meetings, has heartily endorsed this. On Monday, January 7, at 8 p. m., we discuss it in the Belle Glade Legion hall. No greater issue confronts us. Let's pack the building.
